Washington Express is open 24 hours a day offering immediate response pick-ups with no prior notice required. We offer time critical priority deliveries to anywhere in the U.S. We are of particular value for those who need their shipments at their destinations by early A.M.

After Hours pick-ups: When working past a FedEx, UPS or DHL close out time, Washington Express can still provide next day or same day city-to-city deliveries. We are also able to do international deliveries on weekends.

We will customize any discovery exchange shipments for your firm and your clients while protecting your sensitive documents and making pinpoint pick-ups and deliveries according to your deadlines.

We can pick up from copy centers 24 hours a day anywhere in the country or from a hotel, storage site or another firm's offices.

We will always try to ship most cost effectively either by truck or air, according to your deadlines in order provide your firm and clients significant savings as compared to FedEx, UPS and DHL. All moves are priced on a case-by-case basis and are contingent upon destinations, requested delivery time, and shipment weights. Your cost savings can be as much as 50%.

We can also ship computers, facsimile machines, copy machines, paper shredders and other support materials to and from a temporary trial site at substantial cost savings to your firm and clients.
